Date of decision: 31/03/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Heard Mr. Y.S. Lakhani for the petitioner and Mr. K.L. Pandya, learned AGP, for the respondents. Mr. Lakhani stated that in the present case the licence period is over in the year 2000 and therefore even if the petition is heard on merits, no fruitful purpose will be served. Mr. Lakhani submitted that in that view of the matter, the petitioner desires to make a fresh application for licence to the State Government and the State Government may be directed to consider such application in accordance with law and without influencing the order passed by the State Government. Accordingly it is observed that if the petitioner makes an application, within a period of three weeks from today, for licence, the State Government shall consider the same in accordance with law without influencing the order passed by the State Government.

2. The petition is accordingly disposed of. Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
